KARI Cohen is the name Caitlin chose for herself. She is running after she and her friend defended themselves against a man who was attacking them. She left home when her parents were trying to force her to marry their neighbor's son who has pawed her and said such vile things that he was going to do to her. She has felt safe in the company of Dr. Will Beattie and thinks he may have feelings for her. Her sister Melissa shows up and Kari is wondering how she found her. You will enjoy this story for it has a plot that is unexpected.

I always give this author a five star rating, her books have great characters in them and this mystery series is very good it kept me interested and had me sitting on the edge of my seat. If you love mysteries I recommend this series.

I wish I had read the first two books before I read this great book so I knew more of the back story. I will read them next as they are stand alone books. I've read so many of Indiana Wake's book that I've lost count. She is a super author. I love her interesting storylines. They keep you reading until you are done and wanting more of her work. Read this book and enjoy a few moments in the past.

Another great book. Cannot wait for the next book in the series. I won this book but would have definitely bought it. My favorite author.
