Amish Mystery And Romance: The Plea Bargain

Synopsis

A murdered father and convicted boyfriend leave one Amish woman's life in shambles. Charity's life is turned upside when her father, a respectable man in the Amish community, is murdered and her boyfriend Aaron is accused of the crime. After taking a plea bargain, Aaron is sentenced to fifteen years in prison. Skeptical of the investigation and court proceedings, Charity takes it upon herself to find the person who truly killed her father. In order to begin her own investigation, Charity stays with her friend Noah in the city, telling her mother that she is off visiting her brother. While there, Charity visits Aaron in prison and begins to work with James Maddison, Aaron's lawyer. Together, they uncover evidence that was not presented in court and get closer to finding the identity of the real perpetrator. However, as Charity gets closer and closer to the truth, she puts herself into more and more danger. Perhaps the person who killed her father will target her next. Will Charity be able to uncover the truth and finally find the closure she needs after her father's untimely death? Or will the murderer escape justice yet again?
