I Don't Want To Go To Work

Synopsis

Isn't it time the kids read you a bedtime story? Feel stuck in a dead end job? Do you dread going to work the next day? Do you hate traffic? Then here's a kid's book just for you. This follows up to I Don't Want to Go to School • turns bedtime reading on its head because it's not for your children, it's for you. That's right, it's the children's turn to read you a story that encourages your life in the same way that their stories encourage them. But this is no adult book. With easy to read text, fun repetition, and hilarious illustrations, your children will enjoy this book just as much as you do. So what are you waiting for? Customer Reviews

My four year old grandson loved I DON'T WANT TO GO TO SCHOOL so much that we ordered this one. It was not as cute or funny as the SCHOOL book. We did enjoy reading it but we both still prefer I DON'T WANT TO GO TO SCHOOL.

Here is my daughter's review of the book. She is 6."I liked the part when he thought his teacher was a monster and I liked the part when she said she saw him at the grocery store. I also liked the part about when he thought he would have too many things in his book bag and he fell backward and couldn't get up."For her reading level, I thought that this book was a little too easy for her but she enjoyed. This is a good book for children who are either first attending school to ease their anxieties about having a new routine.

A sequel to I don't want to go to school. A read aloud for children to read to adults. Adults will understand why they go to work, a good reminder of why parents go to work.

Cute book, helps with not wanting to go to school too!
